FOREWORD

If all our yesterdays could be pasted into a giant scrapbook of memories, what wonderful moments we might relive! Captured in these pages are little bits of living . . . fun and laughter, good times and comradeship.

As you read and re-read your journal, you may remember other things too . . . confetti in your hair and stale peanuts at that last basketball game . . . the delicious taste of bubble gum secretly chewed . . . the bitter-sweet feeling of puppy love . . . the swish of formals at the Senior Prom . . . the funny lump in your throat when they sang "Auld Lang Syne" and you knew it was at last for you . . .

This memory book cannot say all these things, but it may help you to dream once more of those "dear old golden rule days."

Dedication

This Journal is dedicated to an intangible something called the Spirit of Lincoln; it is dedicated to the boys and girls and teachers who have made that spirit stronger through their cooperation and friendship; it is dedicated to the universal dream of a better world to live in.

Lincoln's Administrators

MR. WALTER FREDERICKSON

Mr. Frederickson, popular dean of boys, left High School of Commerce to start at Lincoln the first day it opened. He likes his job and considers the boys at Lincoln an important factor as an organized group showing great school spirit at rallies and games. His main ambition for Lincoln is to have a real gym soon.

Mr. Frederickson recalled the good ol' days, when Lincoln first opened and 24th Avenue was still unpaved. The court was not paved, and rallies were held on a rocky sand slope. The dean of boys' most satisfying memories were the 1943 football championship, when Lincoln was a young school without equipment, and this year, Lincoln's first basketball championship after an undefeated season in the A.A.A. Pioneer Day, is also outstanding among his memories.

MISS ANITA TRUMAN

Our well-liked dean of girls, Miss Anita Truman, hails from the University of California, where she studied five years, majoring in foreign language. She then taught at Mission High School and became head of the language department. In August 1940 Miss Truman started at Lincoln.

Miss Truman's hidden desires are few. She said that even when she was little and playing with paper dolls she wanted to become a teacher. Now she would like to have more leisure time to travel and at the first opportunity intends to take a leave. Also, she thinks Lincoln could use a good-sized club room, furnished appropriately for social entertaining.

When asked what her fondest memories of Lincoln were Miss Truman said she would never forget the fine cooperation and assistance from Mr. White and Mr. Frederickson, the office staff, faculty, and students. Nor will she forget Lincoln's first carnival, "The Country Store," and the football and basketball championships.

Student Body Officers · F'47

Hard work, determination and cooperation on the part of all the student body officers made the fall term of 1947 very successful. It will never be forgotten by those who attended Lincoln at the time.

Under the leadership of student body president, Jack Jackson, many successful rallies and double lunches were held. Before becoming student body president, Jack showed his interest in school activities when he became president of the junior class and participated for two years on the varsity football and basketball squads. He was also student body treasurer in his low senior year.

The enthusiastic vice-president was Dorothy Christopherson. Dottie was kept busy planning for the monthly dances, which were held at the Aptos Gym, and obtaining professional entertainment for our rallies. Before becoming vice-president, Dorothy participated in many activities around the Hilltop and held class office in her sophomore and junior years.

Carolyn Craig worked hard and did a good job as secretary for the student body and in her many other activities throughout the term by faithfully posting the minutes on the bulletin boards. Carolyn made it possible for the whole student body to know what took place at all the student body meetings.

Hal Hoffman, although only a low senior when he held the office of student body treasurer, kept up the Lincoln tradition of always being one hundred per cent in student body card sales. He made sure that the account books were in good condition before he handed them over to his successor.

Dick Coltrell handed out more court summons than any other student body judge in the history of this school. In this way he kept the school very clean.

The boy who kept the rooting section in good spirits during the football season was Walt Mehl, a low senior. Walt helped make Lincoln's rooting section one of the best in the city.

Student Body Officers · S'48

Under the capable leadership of Walt Mehl, who held the office of student body president, another term has been added to the history of Abraham Lincoln High School.

Walt Mehl will always be remembered by Mustangs as one of the best presidents the student body ever had. His way of obtaining better attention at the rallies was an item on the long list of Walt's achievements. He also held the offices of president of the freshman class, and student body yell leader.

The hard working vice-president was Jane McPhee, who tried something new for the monthly dances by engaging a professional band. She spent many hours working out new and better ideas for decorating Aptos, besides arranging for outside rally entertainment. Jane was also very active in school affairs, participating in various committees before becoming a student body officer.

Janet Smith wrote many letters for the Lincoln High Student Body in carrying out her job as secretary. She also kept the minutes for all the student body meetings throughout the term. Before holding this office Jan was song leader and played a prominent role in the term play.

Lincoln again was one hundred per cent in the sale of student body cards largely through the efforts of the student body treasurer, Bliss Stanley. Bliss worked very hard on the student body sales, keeping the treasury books in very good condition and selling many tickets to the basketball games.

This term there were no broken records in the issuing of court summons. However, many mornings students could be seen doing various chores around school under the direction of our very capable student body judge, Dave Geddes.

Dick Sperisen filled his office as yell leader by keeping the rooting section behind our championship basketball team. No one can forget how he helped make the school yells echo through the hall during rallies. Dick held the office of assistant yell leader for several terms before becoming head yell leader.

Class Officers · F'47

The president of the high senior class for the fall term of '47 was popular Jim Ramstead. Jim was also an all-city basketball player, and when he wasn't practicing basketball, he was busy with numerous high senior activities. He was ably assisted by Marty Vermeulen, vice-president; Vinette Stone, secretary; and Rich Sommer, treasurer. These officers spent their time planning such events as the prom, which was held at the Sir Francis Drake, the picnic at Fairfax, the breakfast at Jeanette's, and graduation at Washington. Mr. Floyd French was the class advisor, and worked with the officers to help fill the term with many successful events.

An active low senior term was made possible by the low senior class officers who were the following: Marcel Fiore, president; Eileen Flaherty, vice-president; and Lillian Kloster, secretary-treasurer. With the leadership of such fine officers and with good cooperation within itself, the class was able to sponsor a very successful Low Senior Brawl. Miss Marian Shepherd, class advisor, guided the officers through their activities and was responsible for much of the term's success.

The juniors, though unable to sponsor a dance last term, organized a clothing drive to help the children of Europe. The class set and met a quota of seventy-five pounds of clothing for each registry. Those who helped make this clothing drive a success were class officers Bob Gill, president; Joan Carr, vice-president; and Anita Groth, secretary-treasurer.

Last term the sophomore class had only two officers. A girl held the office of president of the class. Joan Walti wielded the gavel over the sophomores and efficient Pat Hofling performed the duties of the combined office of vice-president and secretary-treasurer.

The freshman class was well represented in school with a fine group of officers.

Class Officers · S '48

Those who graduated this term will always remember the fine work done by their class officers. Marcel Fiore, a very capable student leader, was high senior president. He was assisted by Jean Maltseff, vice-president; June Prescott, secretary; Eileen Flaherty, treasurer. With the cooperation of these officers and the advice of Miss Marion Shepard, the class sponsor, all the activities for the term were carefully planned and successful. This class introduced the idea of a council composed of five members from each high senior registry.

The freshman class also enjoyed a successful term due to the efforts of their very able officers. Sharon Hauptert as president, Marilyn Hertz as vice-president, and Dorothy Russ as secretary proved themselves able leaders and efficient officers.

President of the low senior class was Bob Froeschle. It was largely through his efforts that the class was able to sponsor a very successful low senior dance at the Marine Memorial Club. Bob was assisted by Bev Anthony as vice president; June Larson was secretary, and the treasurer for the class was Phil Vukicevich. These officers worked together to see that the dance was a success, so that the class might have many high senior functions next term.

The junior class also sponsored a very successful dance, which they called the Nautical Dip. The hard-working officers, who gave up a lot of their time to the activities of the class, were Louis Passeri, president; Marion Lee, vice-president, and Mavis Maslin, secretary-treasurer.

The sophomore class officers were: Don McLane, president; Constance Varner, vice-president; and the secretary-treasurer, Shirley Rolph. These officers worked together with Mr. Schmidt.

Student Council

The Student Council is composed of the student body officers, the five class presidents, and the editor of the "Lincoln Log." It is the upper house of Lincoln's student government. Some of the duties of the council are to work out the school budget, hold dances, plan rallies, supervise clean-up campaigns, and act as a jury in student court every Friday morning. The last is a very important duty. Many schools, after seeing how well the Student Court works at Lincoln, plan to establish their own soon. Summons are handed out for disobeying school rules against such things as non-seniors sitting in the senior section at rallies, being in the halls at lunch time, writing on desks, throwing papers on school grounds, failure to report for hall duty, smoking or being disorderly. The offender is then required to appear at the next session of the court. He is given a chance to plead guilty or not guilty and state his reasons. After the jury reaches a verdict, the judge passes sentence. Some of the sentences passed have required the offender to write a composition, polish the bannisters, wash lockers, or clean the cafe after lunch. Failure to appear in court after receiving a summons constitutes contempt of court.

The Student Council has worked very hard this year. Everyone will remember the clean-up day organized by the council last fall, and the Aptos dance, "Hearts a-Poppin'," sponsored by the council this spring. However, it was not all work and no play, for the traditional banquet was held at the end of each term.

Student Assembly

Lincoln's Student Assembly consists of representatives elected in each registry and the student body officers. It is the lowest house of Lincoln's student government, the link between the Student Council and the registries. The vice-president of the student body serves as the presiding officer. Dot Christopherson held this position during the fall term. Jane MacPhee directed the representatives in the spring term. The assembly meets after school several times a month.

This year the assembly has done much valuable work for the school. Its members have sold many tickets for the Aptos dances and aided the P.T.A. in its membership drive by giving talks in the registries. Also, the assembly played a great part in organizing the plans for a new type of clean-up campaign, which was carried out this year. Attired in "levis and shirts," the whole student body devoted almost an entire day to cleaning up the school. The first period was spent in making the registries spic and span. Students scrubbed desks and blackboards and swept floors. A few very ambitious students hunted up mops and pails of water and even washed the floors. During the gym periods, attention was focused on the outdoor part of the school grounds. In spite of much hard work, everyone enjoyed himself. At the end of the day there was a rally with bonfire.

DOLORES CABECEIRA . . . fond of Chinese food, classical music and 202 . . . pet hate of "Dee's" is crowded street cars.

Trying to look studious but displaying his handsome smile is one of the senior class' biggest and best, BILL SANS. Bill came to Lincoln from Parkside Grammar School. He is known by many for his outstanding part as tackle on Lincoln's varsity team and his all-city position as tackle for two years. Bill won all-American honors in football, was president of the Gridiron Club, president of his reg., and a member of the Block "L."

Popular with all the Hilltop fellows and gals is merry SALLY SHENSON. Another native San Franciscan, Sally came to Lincoln from Aptos Junior High School. Her marvelous sense of humor helped her with numerous hard tasks as feature editor of the Log, chairman of Western Day, chairman of the Senior Picnic and working on the Round-up. Few of us will ever forget this active girl whose future plans include working at Knit Kraft Sportswear.

Known to all the school for the outstanding job he did as senior class treasurer and for his participation in track and soccer is RICH SOMMER. Looking back at Rich's history at Lincoln, we see that he was also active in the Hi-Y and Block "L" clubs. Money (above all), short girls, steak, Lincoln continentals, fishing, skiing, and Windsor ties rate high with him. With a good "B" average, Rich plans to attend Davis College in the near future.

You'll surely recognize these smiling sisters (not twins) as BETTY and JANE WINFIELD. Betty was born in Kentucky and Jane in Indiana but they came to San Francisco at one and two years of age, respectively. After attending Lawton Grammar School, the girls came to Lincoln where Betty served as second page editor of the Log and Jane as her assistant. Betty also helped plan the graduation. Both love horses and both plan to take up teaching.

Characteristic of high senior DICK COLTRELL are a broad grin and the habit of picking up papers. Dick distinguished himself as an enthusiastic yell-leader, and judge of the student court, battalion commander of the R.O.T.C. and registry official. Likable Dick hails from Vallejo and came to the Sandune Hill from Francis Scott Key Grammar School. To reap revenge on a hapless generation, Dick intends to be a history teacher.

Meet attractive, blue-eyed SHARON McDONNELL, cheerfully prepping for her journalism major at U.C. Sharon, serving as Lincoln Log editor, and as president of the Girls' Service Society and Tri-Y Chapter I, set an enviable record for other Mustangs to follow. This versatile girl also served as chairman of the prom committee and member of the Aptos dance committee. A San Francisco lass, Sharon entered Lincoln as a freshman, hailing from Jefferson Grammar School.

While draping his lanky frame over this jet-propelled jalopy, JIM RAMSTEAD is seen enjoying his favorite occupation—relaxing. Versatile is the word to describe Mustang Jim. In addition to his spectacular basketball career, he found time to wield a mean gavel as both senior class proxy and "top-man" of the Block "L." An "ole Aptos Injun," Jim enjoyed at Lincoln the popularity that always seems to haunt a regular fellow. After graduation he will pound the hardwoods at Stanford.

Vivacious and friendly are perfect words to describe DOROTHY CHRISTOPHERSON, our popular vice-president. Most folks don't know that Dottie grew up in Canada's tall-timber land. Luckily for us, though, she ventured into alien territory and quickly became a favorite. Active in numerous school clubs, Dottie made a bid for Mustang vice-presidency and succeeded. When Indian summer arrives, City College campus will rate a new blonde coed.

RICHARD SOMMER . . . Rich likes everything, especially food, fishing, skiing . . . active in Block "L," soccer, track, and Hi-Y . . . wants to be a bum.

Seeming somewhat sad at leaving Lincoln is pretty CAROLYN CRAIG. Carolyn served as Student Body secretary, C.S.F. president, and vice-president of Tri-Y Chapter I. Arriving at the Hilltop from Aptos, she has studied and worked hard to make Lincoln better than ever. Carolyn plans to go down to the "farm" (Stanford to you), where she will major in science in order to become a bacteriologist. Carolyn will always have a special place in the memories of Lincolniters.

Tall, blond, and handsome JACK JACKSON smiles his farewell to the old Hilltop school. Born in Los Angeles, Jack came to Lincoln from Lawton Grammar School. He has been Student Body president, treasurer, Junior and Senior class president. His athletic ability was shown in both football and basketball, and Jack was also active in the Hi-Y group. Soon Jack will be seen at Stanford studying either business or engineering.

Adjectives for BETTY KRESS, the persistent miss grappling with the drinking fountain, would definitely include cute and energetic. Betty handled the brain-wracking job of Lincoln Log assistant editorship with outstanding efficiency. Added to her journalistic talents, her social activities included the fall dance committee and prom committee. At the close of her high senior year, Betty intends to dabble in the lucrative and colorful field of commercial art.

Enjoying the daily sunshine of Lincoln is tall, dark, and handsome AL CASTEN. Al came to Lincoln as a freshman after having spent nine years at Parkside Grammar School. He has been outstanding in many hilltop sports including football and track. Al was also an active member of the Hi-Y. He wants to go to college and be able to play football. Once again Lincoln bids farewell to one of its favorite sons, Wide awake and looking happy with graduation so close is JACKIE ARMOS, active member of the high senior class. Activities which Jackie excelled in were working on the feature page of the Log, in G.S.S., and serving on Senior Prom and Aptos dance committee. Plans for the future are lengthy and definite. They include a year of S.F.C.C. and then to U.S.C. or San Jose State for either a teacher's course or social work of some kind.

Here we find efficient Student Body Treasurer BLISS STANLEY enjoying a stroll during one of his rare leisure moments. Bliss attended grammar school in his birthplace, Bradford, Ohio. He came to Lincoln after spending a year at Aptos. Bliss has worked very hard on his studies for two and a half years in order to achieve life membership in the CSF, and have more time to enjoy himself in his high senior year.

Blue-eyed, blond LILLIAN KLOSTER presents a pert picture perched on the banister. "Pug," as she is known to her friends, came to Lincoln from Jefferson Grammar School. To Pug's hard work can be attributed much of the success of the high junior and low senior dances, for she was secretary of the classes when the dances were given. After graduation she plans to attend college, possibly Cal. Pug was also song leader and belonged to the Tri-Y and the G.S.S.

WALT MEHL, student body president this term, is the good-looking fellow coming through the door. Walt entered Lincoln four years ago after graduating from Jefferson. His activities include four years of basketball, including varsity and 30's, a boxing championship in his junior year, president of freshman class, yell leader in low senior term, and a swell term as student body president. Walt hopes to make U.S.F. his future school and receive a college diploma.

Surrounded by books, but happy just the same, is pretty, well-liked senior BOBBIE BYRNE. Bobbie is well known to everyone for her hard work on various class dance committees, entertainment at rallies, and her journalism work both on the Log and journal staff. Bobbie wants to be a commercial artist and plans to take this work at San Francisco City College. Abe wishes luck to one of his favorite spring graduates.

This happy-looking fellow is known to us as BILL GAINAY. He attended Commodore Sloat and graduated from Parkside before joining the crowd on the hill. Bill was football manager for two terms, head athletic manager, and also baseball manager. This is a vital part of any team and Abe salutes Bill for his service. Future plans include either Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo, San Jose State College or a machinist's apprenticeship in the Navy.

Happy as she performs an act common to all Lincolnesites is cute NANCY MEEHAN, another senior to be saluted by Abe. Born in San Francisco, Nancy came to Lincoln as a freshman from St. Anne's. While here she has held various registry offices, has been an active member of Tri-Y, and did a wonderful job as photography editor for the journal. Nancy plans to finish her studies at Cal., where she will major in music.

DAVE GEDDES, student court judge this term, traveled a long way before finally arriving at Lincoln. He was born in the Dutch East Indies, and before reaching the age of five, Dave had traveled around the world one and a half times. He has received many service points for entertaining at rallies with a group of friends who formed a band. When he graduates, Dave hopes to enter Cal and study law.

Smiling either because she has a ride or because she's getting her picture taken is peppy JEANETTE BERTA. Hailing from Parkside, Jeanette's activities at Lincoln were numerous: President of G.S.S., vice-president of Music Club, registry secretary for three and one-half years, life member of CSF, chairman of cap and gown committee, one of the leads in "She Stoops to Conquer," and entertaining at many rallies. It's State College and a grammar school teacher for Jeanette after graduation.

This blond, good-looking fellow is known to everyone as CHUCK LORD. Charlie was born in Watsonville and lived there and in Martinez until 1942, when he entered Parkside. Chuck has been very active in football, his only sport. He has served as his registry president since his sophomore year. Charlie was in the Block L and also worked on the Lincoln Log staff. No definite plans have been made for the future except for two years at City College.

Meet cute CONNIE HARDY, who dispells the belief that brains and good looks can't be combined. Although Connie is a life member of the CSF, don't think that she spent all her time at Lincoln merely studying. Among other activities she belonged to the G.S.S., in which she held the office of vice-president, the Tri-Y, and the dance committee. In the future Connie hopes to attend Stanford or Marin J.C., where she may take up business administration.

KELLER, RONALD . . . wants to be a commercial artist . . . flying and Bev Green head his list of likes . . . dislikes big shots.

Enjoying a rare moment of peace and quiet with his lunch is MARCEL FIORE, one of Lincoln's best-liked personalities. Since arriving from Aptos, "Snooks'" days at the Hilltop have been crammed full of activities. He has played both football and baseball for three years and has been president of the junior, low senior, and high senior classes. After graduation Snooks will attend Santa Clara or San Jose State, after which he hopes to become a physical ed instructor.

Characteristic of Lincoln are the shacks, but much more pleasing to look at is cute JAN ALVERSON. Originally from Oakland, Jan came to Lincoln from Lawton in her freshman year. Hard work on various class dance committees and on the Aptos dance committee, the journal staff and the Senior Picnic committee seems to have agreed well with this typical hilltop lassie, though. Future plans include Cal, where Jan will study journalism and business.

Strolling around Lincoln's campus is handsome NORM MACKENZIE. Norm's height, six feet five inches, was used to full advantage on the basketball court during his four years on the hilltop. During his high senior term he was chosen "prep of the week" for his outstanding playing. Norm was also in the Block L and served on the Senior Prom committee. He came to Lincoln from Parkside and plans to attend the University of San Francisco in the fall.

Taking a moment off from her hard work as a high senior is friendly JEAN MALTSEFF, one of Lincoln's favorites. Jean came to the hilltop as a freshman from Jefferson. Some of the things that kept her busy while at Lincoln were Tri-Y, G.S.S., song leader, high senior vice-president and assistant editor of the Round-Up. Future plans for Jean include Stanford or Marin J.C. for a course in journalism. The Crimson and Gold salutes a favorite on the hilltop.

McKENNA, HELEN . . . "Mickie" wants to be a Cal student . . . money, clothes and tall fellows rate high . . . blue eyes, brown hair.

LARRY SOLARI is the name of this tall, blond, and happy fellow, well known at Lincoln. Larry came to Lincoln as a sophomore from Aptos. He played basketball and baseball one year and football for three years. Larry was sports editor of the Log this term. He was very lucky to attend Boys' State at Sacramento last summer. Larry plans to go to Stanford after graduation to study chemistry and maybe play football or basketball.

This cute high senior girl is none other than CHARLOTTE CAILLEUX. Lots of you know her, but here's a little information about her, anyway. "Chi," as her friends call her, came to Lincoln from Lawton Grammar School four years ago. While attending Lincoln, she has been active in Tri-Y Chapter 1, as well as senior editor of the journal and a member of the Senior Council. This fall you'll probably find Chi studying hard at Cal.

Taking time out to relax in the sun is FRANK KAWALKOWSKI, efficient editor of the Lincoln Log. A native San Franciscan, Frank came to Lincoln after spending his freshman year at Saint Ignatius. In addition to his many duties on the Log, he was also an active member of the Student Council. Frank hopes to enter Stanford this fall and later follow an advertising career. Until then he'll spend his time working.

About to spend a nickel is cute JUNE PRESCOTT with the sparkling blue eyes. Despite the fact that she didn't arrive at Lincoln until her junior year (June previously attended Jefferson Union High) this popular miss was elected secretary of the high senior class and also president of her registry. June has definite plans for the future. She plans to enter the nursing school at St. Mary's Hospital and later work with children at Shriner's Hospital.

Hailing from Petaluma you see before you one of Abe's favorites—RON FREDERICKS—With laughing hazel eyes and a brilliant Ipana smile, Ron has become an active and outstanding high senior. Being a sportsman at heart, Ron has been a key man on the 130 basketball team for two years and has attained the position of high-point player during the past basketball season. His other activities were helping with the High Senior Breakfast and being treasurer of his senior registry.

LOIS JANETSKY, another of our senior Lincoln lovelies, has been doing her best for the last four years to help Lincoln stay on top. Lo is another Lawton Grammar School alumna. Her activities here on the hilltop have included several offices in Tri-Y Chapter I, the Senior Council, and the big job of assistant photography editor of the journal. After graduating this June, Lo will probably attend San Francisco City College.

Performing an act necessary to all high school fellows is handsome BILL WALTZ. Bill entered Lincoln from Aptos and since then has proved himself an all-around sportsman. In 1946 he broke the 120's high jump record and became the first A.A.A. Lincoln track record holder. Bill was registry president for two terms and a member of the Block L and Hi-Y. Basketball and lightweight diving were his sports, also. Bill will study business administration in college.

Dodging raindrops is petite RUTH WEIDENFELD, who smiles through it all. She was born in Omaha, Nebraska, where she had eight years of schooling. In 1944, Ruth and her family moved to San Francisco, and she entered Lincoln. Ruth has entertained at many rallies, and her singing was always greatly enjoyed. She has also held offices in the Music Club and registry. Ruth will attend S. F. State College to study music, her future career.

This dark, curly-haired fellow is known around Lincoln as "SKIP" PHILLIPS. Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Skip lived there for seven years, four years in North Carolina, and six years in San Francisco. His many activities on the hilltop include debating and public speaking, CSF, track and soccer teams, Log and journal sports staff. Skip was lucky to work at the U.N. Conference in San Francisco. He plans to attend Stanford and become a writer.

Standing before a place very familiar to her is pretty, ambitious JANE MacPHEE. Jane's many important activities have helped keep Lincoln on top. Jane served as vice-president of the low and high junior classes, on the rally committee, dance committee, as a song leader, member of the cast of the term play, and vice-president of the student body. As vice-president Jane should be noted especially for hard work and the time she has given to the school.

RUSH MANBERT is the tall, blond fellow you see walking through one of Lincoln's many entrances. Rush is known to hilltop students for his many activities which include being R.O.T.C. battalion commander, hard-working ad manager of the journal, Senior Council member, CSF member, and a member of the cards and announcements committee. Rush has very definite plans for the future which include studying medicine at U.C. And so another senior goes with memories of Lincoln.

Here's the girl who kept the high senior accounts in good order this term, EILEEN FLAHERTY. Eileen, who is known for her friendliness, has been vice-president of the sophomore and low senior classes and also a member of the G.S.S. and Tri-Y. She likes San Francisco very much although her home town is Los Angeles. After she receives her diploma from Lincoln, Eileen plans to study at either Pomona or Cal. for the medical profession.

Dick has served on many different committees around school. He was elected student body yell leader in the spring of '48. The yell leader plays an important part in school and Dick is to be congratulated on his work in leading the cheers for Lincoln's teams.

CARLA JO PENNINGTON is the name of the friendly and ambitious person you see smiling at you. Carla Jo, who entered as a freshman, is now known to everyone on the hilltop. Being business manager of the journal, vice-president of Tri-Y, vice-president of the G.A.A., member of G.S.S., really kept Carla Jo busy. She hopes to go to Cal and major in social welfare.

Leisurely strolling to class is popular LES BRILLIANT, recognized by all Sandiners for his outstanding basketball playing. Les has truly helped Lincoln to keep on top. He came to Lincoln from Jefferson and has been active in Block L activities since his arrival. After two years of varsity basketball, Les made the all-city varsity for two years and was named outstanding player in the Tournament of Champions. Les hopes to go to Menlo J.C. and later Stanford to study business administration.

Vivacious, energetic and well-liked best describes our JAN SMITH, the active high senior who has helped make the spring '48 term a tremendous success. Her duties and activities were many, such as starring in "Junior Miss," being a member of the Tri-Y, feature editor of the Log, serving on the Senior Breakfast committee, as a singing song leader, and as student body secretary. So once again Abe hails a girl he will never forget.

FRANK KAWALKOWSKI
Log Editor

'47-'48 Lincoln Log

This spring term the editor of Lincoln's newspaper, the Lincoln Log, is Frank Kawalkowski. Frank, who has introduced many new ideas on the way the paper should be made up, operates under the supervision of Mr. Armond DeMartini, Lincoln's journalism instructor.

Assistant editor is Mary King. Mary was editor of the assistants' edition, proof reader, copy reader, and anything else that was needed.

Shirley Fried and Marge Carter are news editors and have charge of the first page, selecting and writing stories for their page.

The heavy job of editing the editorial page is ably handled by Sue Friedman and Joyce Elman. This is one of the toughest jobs on the paper and requires skilled writing and editing.

Sports are handled by Larry Solari and Chuck Lord. This is one of the most responsible positions on the paper.

The feature page is supervised by Janet Smith and Iris Woodey. Jan and Iris form a good team and have made it a page of real enjoyment.

Another person who deserves mention is hard-working Al Zinkand, who gets ads for the paper. His job of advertising manager is important, for without ads, there would be no paper.

In the fall, the staff, which also did an outstanding job, consisted of Sharon McDonnell, editor; Betty Kress, assistant editor; Nellie Zais and Bobbie Byrne, news; Betty and Jane Winfield, editorial; Bob Quinlan and Ken Glover, sports; and Jackie Armos, feature.

JOAN CARR
Round-Up Editor

1948 Round-Up

This term the members of the second period journalism class present the fall '47 - spring '48 "Round-up." They have worked tirelessly to meet the rigid time schedule imposed so that the "Round-up" might be published and distributed before the end of the term. Mr. Armond De Martini, journalism instructor, was always present with helpful comments and advice.

Acting as editor-in-chief of this important annual publication was low senior, Joan Carr. Joan originated the theme of "Memories" and together with Jean Maltseff, assistant editor, set to work to carry out this theme. After dividing the year book into sections, they assigned these sections to various students who composed the Journal staff. Members of the Journal staff were Viv Mack and Joyce Hunter, faculty; Bobbie Byrne and Joan Espinal, student government; Charlotte Cailteux, seniors; Jan Alverson and Jackie Armos, informals; Marilyn Sheerin and Shirley Schaumleffel, clubs; Diane Ryan and Ardeth Smith, ad pictures; Jan Solache and Noel Randolph, registries; Carla Jo Penington, girls' sports; and Gene Van Dyke, boys' sports.

In order to finance the "Round-up," advertisements were solicited from local business concerns as well as from the registries. Managing this twenty-four hour job were Lois Swanson and Rush Manbert. Finances were entrusted to Carla Jo Penington. Publicity was energetically handled by Jim Allen, and distribution of the "Round-up" was directed by Esther Ossin. All pictures in the journal were scheduled by photography editors, Nancy Meehan and Lois Janetsky. Student photographers were Brent Hannon and Russ Lapham. Betty Richards was head typist.

The term was brought to a close with a banquet held at the Balalika.

On the night of May 21, Lincoln's thespians presented the term play, "Best Foot Forward," by John Cecil Holm, at the Commerce High School auditorium.

The play was a great success, and much credit is due the technical crew and the cast, under the direction of Miss Jane Saulsberry, dramatics teacher.

A room in the boys' dormitory at Winscott Prep School is the scene of the play. The students of Winscott invite their very best girls to their annual prom. After inviting his girl, Bud Hooper develops a terrific crush on a glamorous movie star, Gale Joy, and writes her a letter inviting her to the prom, never dreaming she will accept. In need of a publicity stunt, Miss Joy and her manager, Jack Haggerty, arrive for the dance. Meanwhile, Bud's real girl friend, Helen Schlessinger, makes her entrance and complications set in. The other girls invited to the dance, Ethel, Minerva, and the Blind Date, are very confident that they can depend on their boy friends—Dutch, Hunk, and Chuck, respectively—to keep away from the movie star—but nature takes its course and the girls are left "flat." In an attempt to get even with Gale

Joy, the girls plot to take a few souvenirs from her, which results in a chase that includes the whole cast—first, Miss Joy; second, the girls after souvenirs; third, the boys trying to stop the girls; and fourth, the faculty, attempting to stop the whole mob. The play ends when Gale Joy gets a contract with a movie company, the couples end up happily, and the school, through the publicity, expects to have a good football team for the following term.

Music...

ORCHESTRA AND BAND DIVISION OF THE MUSIC CLUB

If you like music, you'll like the way Lincoln's band and orchestra give each rhythm a special touch. Supervised by Mr. George Melvin, the group takes an active part in promoting school spirit. The brassy beat of the Lincoln band stirs rooters and players on to action at every basketball and football game. Half the fun of being in the rooting section would be lost without swaying to the band's rendition of "The Band Played On."

The sixth period orchestra is guaranteed to please with such semi-classical favorites as "In a Persian Market" or "Pavanne." Directed by Tom Chesterman, the orchestra has been working on classical selections, in order to make intermissions of the term play and graduation exercises more enjoyable.

Outstanding is the term given the talented performance of the concertmaster and principal violinist, Henry Eidler. Also outstanding is Yvonne Collins, solo-trumpet, the only girl participating in the band; however, there are other girls in the orchestra. The success of the students in mastering their chosen instruments is due in part to the tireless efforts of Mr. Melvin.

Together, the band and orchestra help to give Lincoln the best musical entertainment. For what would a rally be without the "Fight Song" or a graduation without Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance"? The members of the club have good cause to be proud of the part they play in making Lincoln's activities of the highest standard.

...Music

Lincoln's Music Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Helen Cutler, is known to be one of the best in the city. The purpose of this club is to provide good entertainment, whenever and wherever it is needed.

During the past year the Music Club has been called upon many times to entertain at rallies. At these rallies Ruth Weidenfeld, Betty Estes and Marion Mishne have sung both as a trio and as soloists. Bob Bunker, new Lincolnite, quickly won popularity with his deep voice. Jim Allen, another club member, also sang at several rallies.

Jeanette Berta gave a monologue, and Jim Allen and Bob Bunker sang at the sophomore and freshman rally. Ruth Weidenfeld, Bob Bunker, Jim Allen, Ted Tinges, Bob Delany and Marion Mishne formed a double quartette and entertained with more songs.

But the club's activities do not stop there. Ted Tinges, Jim Allen and Barbara Hoffman tried out for musical scholarships offered by San Francisco State College. Katherine Lauper, who went along only as piano accompanist, was also a person to whom the scholarship was awarded.

Officers of the Lincoln Music Club are: Arvona Vogel, president; Jeanette Berta, vice-president; Virginia Chigris, secretary; Bob Bunker, treasurer; Chuck Lord, sergeant-at-arms; Norma Mitchell and Ann Kloster, librarians.

Clubs and Societies

FALL CSF

Lincoln must be getting more intelligent, because each term more and more members are added to the CSF. In the fall of 1947, the president was Carolyn Craig; vice-president, Mavis Maslin; and secretary, Jean Cummings. Miss Rosen took the large group to the United Airlines for a visit. They were conducted on a tour where they inspected the service plant and the Mainliner.

SPRING CSF

In the spring term of 1948 the CSF members were really kept busy. President Katherine Harriman with Jean Cummings, vice-president, and Mavis Maslin, secretary, planned a delightful program for all. Movies were provided for frequently. The students enjoyed a fine performance of the great stage show "Oklahoma." This club often takes interesting trips and during the term visited the Examiner offices. The CSF was shown throughout the entire plant and learned how an entire edition is printed. The climax of one of the best terms for the students was a trip on a launch in San Francisco Bay.

JUNIOR STATESMEN CLUB

Better understanding of civic, national and international problems is the goal of Lincoln's Junior Statesmen Club. Ably headed by Ann Russo, the club is one of the most active branches in San Francisco.

Meetings are divided into two types, social and business. Usually during the business meetings, members discuss current problems and formulate plans. Social meetings are sparkling highlights in every Statesman's list, complete with outings, home parties, and fun in general.

This semester six Junior Statesmen attended the Bakersfield Convention and brought home valuable ideas for their club's improvement. May 10 marked the date of a city-wide picnic held at Sigmund Stern Grove.

Club members recommend the Junior Statesmen Club to all Lincolnitnes as a friendly, worthwhile organization.

G.S.S.

The Girls' Service Society, sponsored by Miss Anita Truman, Dean of Girls, is composed of forty girls who have twenty or more service points to their credit. This term the girls carried out fully their object—to give service to the school by ushering at the term play and working before and after school in the library.

During the spring term the society, the largest in its history, gave a candlelight ceremony in order to introduce the new members. The term was climaxed by a banquet. Under the capable leadership of Jeanette Berta, president; Connie Hardy, vice-president; Joan Carr, secretary, and Lillian Kloster, treasurer, another successful term was added to the history of Lincoln's G.S.S.

REELWINDERS CLUB

To project and run off slides and motion pictures for the students and teachers of Lincoln is the purpose of the Reelwinders Club. Since visual education has been such an important factor in education, this club has gained in importance and usefulness. Under the guidance of Mr. Bernard Miessi, they are constantly striving to interest students in the new and various movies shown at school. They are very helpful in obtaining pictures of special interest to the students and teachers of our various departments. Members also run off motion pictures for the CSF and other club meetings. The officers of this club for the spring term are Jim Coleman, president; Harry Levin, vice-president; and Ken Ruggles, secretary.

REELWINDERS

CAMERA CLUB

One of the main purposes of the Camera Club, under the guidance of Mr. Mahanah, is to be of service to the school by providing pictures for the Roundup, Lincoln Log and the Bulletin Board. Students learn to take, develop and print better pictures. Many outside activities are being planned by the members of this club. One activity will be a trip to the Viales Studios to get some pointers on the type of work this studio does.

The officers of the club, Don Hansen, president; Dick Allman, vice-president; Jim Buick, treasurer; Paul Schumacher, secretary, are all expert amateur photographers.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debating Club has just completed one of its most active seasons under the able guidance of Mr. John Scudder. The members of this rapidly growing club have brought home many laurels for Lincoln. At each meeting the members carried on very lively and interesting discussions, and debates including a very unusual one-man debate. They have spoken on many timely subjects, such as universal military training and other points of interest in the news. The Debating Club was the host to two tournaments given here at Lincoln and participated in many others elsewhere in California. Some of the outstanding members are Barbara Flaherty, Isabel Istoff, Skip Phillips, Joe Richwood, and Paul Soltow.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club enjoyed a very successful year under the able guidance of Mr. Ernest Williams, new Spanish maestro. Sue Huff, the club president, conducted exciting meetings which were always well attended. Mr. Williams gave interesting talks on Spanish customs, literature, paintings, and general living, and discussions followed. During the term the members visited the Palace of the Legion of Honor to see Spanish art, but remained to see all. The club will never forget that trip because nearly everyone caught a bad case of poison oak from the surrounding bushes. Many posters, books, pictures and Mexican clothes were obtained by the Spanish Club and displayed about the school building for everyone to admire.

THE TRI-Y

The Tri-Y is a social and service organization under the sponsorship of the Y.M.C.A. At Lincoln the membership is so large that the Tri-Y is divided into three chapters. All three chapters work together for many purposes, and often with the Tri-Y's of other schools.

TRI-Y I

Tri-Y Chapter I, Lincoln's oldest chapter, has combined business with pleasure this term. During Christmas vacation some of the members went skiing. Two dinners have been given, one a spaghetti dinner to welcome in the new members. Tri-Y I provided free checking service at the Aptos dance, and sponsored a cake sale, the profits going to the Building for Youth Fund.

TRI-Y II

Since all but four of the members are graduating seniors, Tri-Y Chapter II has had a lot of social activities this term. They gave a dinner for the new members, a banquet at the New Tivoli, two open houses, and a barn dance. Along with these, they collected old clothes for England.

TRI-Y III

Tri-Y Chapter III, Lincoln's youngest chapter, has spent most of the term on service projects. They made toys at the Infant Shelter for Christmas and collected old clothes.

HI-Y

Under the capable guidance of Jack Cummins, president; Gaston Gassiot, vice-president; Al Casten, secretary-treasurer; and Chuck Leonhardt, sergeant-at-arms, the Hi-Y gave many dances and parties which will always be remembered by Lincoln students.

In the past month, the club whipped all teams but four in a city-wide basketball tourney.

The boys were more than active in the forming of a petition for the completion of our school.

Proms and Hops

Lincoln has sponsored many successful dances during the past year. These fun-fests were organized by the student body officers, school committees and the various classes and clubs of the school. Some of the many successful activities were the Junior dance, the "Nautical Dip," the Low-senior Brawl, the Block L dance, the Low-senior Circus Prance, and the Senior Prom, along with the monthly Aptos get-togethers. Music for these proms and hops was provided by Mardy Leaver, Bud Stone, Wally Heiders, Marilyn Merle, Eddie Harkness, and various other professional bands.

Here we see Bev Anthony and Bob Frieschle dancing dreamily at the Low-senior Circus Prance, which was held at the Mariners Memorial Club. . . . Tripping the light fantastic at the Ariel Club during one of Lincoln's memorable hops are Jackie Beaumont and Dick Ashman, who seem to be thoroughly pleased with themselves. . . . At one of the Aptos dances, "Spring Fantasy," we see four of the many couples who attended: Chuck Leonhardt and Ginger Lensi, "Snooks" Fiore and Bobbie Byrne, Jan Alverson and George Biagini, Joyce Boudinot and Don Galloway. . . . The decoration committee (Vivian Mack and John Smith), who are putting the finishing touches on the decorations for the Aptos gym, is faithfully on the job for every dance. . . . Lincoln's mighty Block L men sponsored the annual Block L dance. Seen at this gala affair, which took place at the Century Club, are Norma Reubold and Keith MacBeth, one of Lincoln's most memorable couples. . . . Some couples enjoy a highly popular Aptos dance, "Heart s-a-poppin'." . . . High seniors of the class of Fall '47 are seen waltzing to the delightful music at their unforgettable prom. . . . Lincoln Mustangs take time out for a brief intermission chat.

Yes, these dances will never be forgotten by Lincoln's many colts; nor will Lincolnites forget the work the faculty, the student body officers and the various committees put forth.

DANCES

Class Rooms

From a few well-equipped classrooms to the fourteen wooden shacks which resemble the old one-room schools of yesterday, Lincoln students study a variety of subjects. Not only college preparatory, but also many trade courses are offered. There is little doubt that the student leaving Lincoln has a good education to prepare him for his days to come.

Here we see a group of boys—Len Engel, Rudy Mortensen, Jerry Patterson, Bill Gainey and Dick Behlow—learning the fundamentals in machine shop. . . . A member of the Girls' Physical Education class prepares to hit a homer for her team. . . . Anita Groth, who has a Commercial major, is seen typing a lesson. . . . A few members of Miss Shephard's English class relax before the end of the period. . . . Mr. Miossi teaches one of the more difficult subjects, Physics. Here we see Bob Dawtwyler, Bill Banks and Bill Walti attentively listening to Mr. Miossi discuss the subject. . . . In the art class is Nick Searles and Dick Williamson discussing the merits of Dick's drawing. . . . Here we see a more technical type of art, Mechanical Drawing. Under the direction of Mr. Ryall, we see in the foreground Louis Lang, Roland Riksheim, Dick Oxborough and Ed Yerby working at their drawings. . . . Appearing to enjoy themselves, Helena Levy and two friends clean up after cooking.

Yes, students leave Lincoln prepared. They have had the opportunity of taking anything from cooking and sewing to English and algebra theory. Also such subjects as California history, civics, music appreciation, costume design, history of art, solid geometry and art metal are taught.

The teachers also are a factor in the good education one receives at Lincoln. They are understanding and give good advice along with teaching the lessons. Lincoln's many counselors work hard to help the students choose their future colleges and schools.

Lincoln's classrooms, while interesting and sometimes entertaining, provide the students with real down-to-earth education.

Class Rooms

Lincoln's many interesting classes provide wonderful opportunities for the students. Everything from home economics to machine shop is at the disposal of Lincoln pupils.

The library supplies Lincolnites with all types of books, subject matter, pictures, and information. The library is open from 8:30 to 3:30 for any Lincolnite. Taking advantage of this material are Bob Nagel and two of his buddies who can be seen most every first period in the library. Too interested in her work at her sewing machine to look at the photographer is cute sophomore Diane Hadler, who is majoring in home economics. The library provides many books useful to the students in writing term reports. Here we catch Gene Steil reading a book for his in social problems.

Having the usual after-school gabfest in front of school are just a few of our hilltop helusters congregating before leaving for their after-school hangout . . . Our seventh period library assistant, Marcia Pannier, signs a student release card for a book she wants to take out . . . Drawing posters for one of the Aptos dances, "Spring Fantasy," are two of our many art majors, Ray Larsen and Vic Benditzki . . . One of Lincoln's popular teachers, "Doc" Mosby, aids Ed Bushnel and Jim Barringo in wood shop which seems to be one of the favorite classes for boys . . . Another familiar scene about Lincoln is the cafe during 4th and 5th period lunch—as Fletcher Duff relates one of his many humorous quirks. You can see that it was enjoyed by everyone.

All who are leaving these classrooms here on the hilltop will remember the marvelous opportunities that Abraham Lincoln High School has provided for us, and of course can never forget our well-prepared faculty which has helped us in every way. Those of us who will be at Lincoln for a few more years have the pleasure of having a future of well-planned get-togethers and good times to look forward to.

CLASS ROOMS

Lincoln Rallies

During each term Lincoln's Mustangs look forward to the many well-planned rallies given by the student body. Entertainment varies from speeches made by our coaches to outside entertainment, which includes members of the college theater groups. On some occasions students of the drama classes present hilarious skits, which are enjoyed thoroughly by the audience. Outstanding, also, are the yell leaders and the songsters who appeared at every rally, rain or shine.

This term we were very lucky to have Sharon Haupert, an outstanding high freshman entertainer, with us. Here she is doing one of her many enjoyable song and dance acts. . . . Art Headburg and company from San Francisco State College cut up at one of the well remembered Lincoln rallies. . . . Sue Huff, a well-liked senior, impersonates Al Jolson's recording of "Mammy". . . Iris Woodey and Jeanne Johnson seem to be in the lead as they march to one of the numerous rallies at the Parkside Theater. . . . Keeping up the good neighbor policy, Lincoln was fortunate in having Louis Urroz and his piano at one of the weekly turnouts. . . . "Mrs. Murphy's Chowder" was the name of this skit given by Nancy Brunner, Jean De Paolo, Shirley Schaumleffel, Bev Brown (who, by the way, was Mrs. Murphy), Judy Pors, Lurleen Alcott and Ruth Brickle. . . . Popular drawing teacher, Dick Ryall, gives the boys a pep talk before a game. He's also active coaching his own private track team. . . . Walt Mehl, student body president, and Mr. Melvin, music instructor, lead the rooting section in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The management of the Parkside theater was kind enough to allow Lincoln to have a fine rally there. This rally, besides its entertainment value, marked the end of our very successful basketball season. The team and Coach Ryan received their basketball awards and the entertainment was such that the rally was one of the outstanding events of the term.

This term, as in previous terms, Lincoln's Rally Committee has kept the school's traditional high standard of good clean fun for everyone.

By BOB MARCUS

For the first time in six years, Abraham Lincoln stayed free of Lowell's court domination and shot its way to a 28-25 victory in Kezar Pavilion yesterday.

With the majority of the 3000 leaving every minute of it, the Honest Abe's racked up their second straight victory over the San Jose Cardinals from the undefeated bracket. Led by angular Jim Ramstead, the Linkers were everywhere. Coach Willie Ryan's Sunsetstered throughout, save for a brief interval when his fire had been damped. Lincoln's mastery in the "Tournament of Champions" tournament brought prep basketball in San Francisco to a triumphant finale for the second consecutive year.

Lincoln, AAA winners, overwhelmed Fremont; Oakland Athletics League kingpins, 30-18, for the northern California team title. The victory was at Kezar Pavilion, thus following the pattern of Lowell's three-game triumph and the coveted title in 1947.

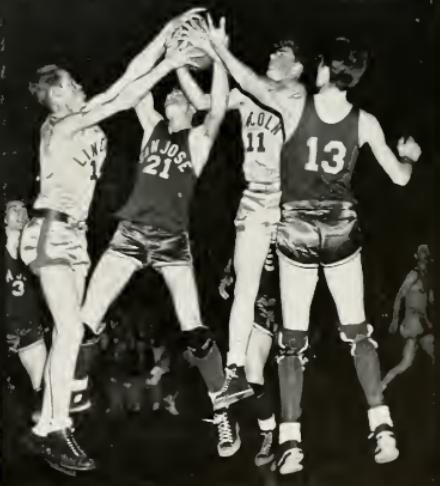

Lincoln was complete master of the contest, despite the Fremonters' display of tenacity. The Oaklanders looked sharp whipping the ball around the court, but failed to whip the cobra through the mesh when the clamps were down.

The Mustangs grabbed a 17-2半-time lead and then coasted to victory without breathing hard.

Les Brilliant, Lincoln's course-wise captain, proved himself the class of the tourney's guards for the third consecutive night as he steered his team to victory with the same finesse he piloted Lincoln to its first AAA basketball title in its history.

Twenties Win Title

Lincoln High's 120-pound casabateers became the first Lincoln basketball team to win an A.A.A. championship as they eked out a 19-15 win over Galileo to move into a three-way tie for the title with Washington and Poly.

In one of the most closely contested games of the season, Lincoln squeezed out an 18-16 triumph over Washington. Winetrub starred for the Eagles, while Don Picatoski was the main offensive threat Lincoln had. Highly touted Mission was slapped down by the Links, 22-17.

The sixth game was played at Commerce, and the Colts came out on top, 19-9. Don Picatoski was high with eight points. The Abes had little trouble downing St. Ignatius. The final score read: Lincoln 16, St. Ignatius 4. In this game the Mustangs made one of their best showings of the season.

With three games remaining on their schedule, the twenties came to the realization that they were nearing the title. They had to win two of their remaining three games to gain at least a share of the title. Only Balboa, Poly and Galileo remained in the Links' title quest.

The Mustangs took the measure of Balboa, 21-17. It was a hard-fought tilt, and if it hadn't been for the Bucs' center, Bill Thomas, the Pirates would never have been in the ball game.

The Links lost a heart-breaker when they were downed by Poly, 23-22.

The Honest Abes met Galileo in their last game of the season for the league title. The twenties performed like true champs as they rolled up a big halftime lead. They were given a scare late in the third quarter when Galileo closed the count to 13-15. However, the Colts gained their equilibrium, pulled ahead and eventually won by a not-too-impressive score of 19-15.

Varsity Football

Lincoln High's 1947 football edition went through one of the school's worst seasons. The squad won only one game while losing five and tying one.

At the close of the season Bill Sans and Don Stillwell were chosen for the first string All-City team. Sans was given added honors when he was selected for the Northern California and the All-American teams.

In their initial game of the season against Mission, the Links were dumped, 18-0. Following a protest by Coach Milt Axt of Lincoln the game was awarded to the Mustangs via the forfeit route, 1-0, but later the decision was rescinded and the 18-0 score stayed in the record books.

The Links' second conqueror was St. Ignatius. The Ignatian eleven took the measure of the Honest Abes, 14-6. Lincoln scored on a short plunge that followed a long sustained drive.

The Hilltoppers came out on the short end of a 20-2 score against Sacred Heart in their third game, which was played on Washington High's turf. The Irish's aerial attack proved to be the Links' downfall.

School spirit was at its peak when Lincoln and Lowell played to a scoreless tie at Kezar Stadium. Lincoln outplayed the Indians but didn't seem to have the drive to punch across the goal line.

The Victory Bell fell into the hands of Washington when they defeated Lincoln, 14-7. Although the Lincoln team were regarded as the underdogs, they put up a brilliant battle and lost out only in the last minutes of the game.

After suffering four setbacks the Links finally hit the jackpot with a 12-6 win over Balboa.

The closing game of the season was dropped to Poly. The Parrots had too much speed as they punched out a 40-6 win. Lincoln had some satisfaction as they were the first to score. Following the opening kickoff the Links drove the distance of the field for a score.

Varsity Football

In a pre-season game the Lincoln eleven traveled to the Vallejo turf where they played and lost in front of a Lincoln rooting section, rather large considering the distance the rooters had to travel.

Despite the fact that the Lincoln team had two first string All-City men, they finished practically at the bottom of the list. The Lincolniters, favored to come out somewhere near the top, surprised everyone when they were so often overwhelmed. But there are greater expectations for them next year since many men, not seniors then, played and gathered much needed experience and will probably redeem themselves in the coming fall. Whatever the outcome might be, the Hilltoppers are going to come out fighting. One factor which may influence next season is that Coach Milt Axt will have worked with the boys and will be more accustomed to them. Coming in as he did to coach Lincoln for the first time last fall, he did a pretty good job.

In spite of a rather poor season the Lincoln rooters supported their team all the way and will continue to do so, win or lose, next year.

JAY-VES AND GOOFS

Sparked by a host of future varsity football stars, the Lincoln Junior Varsity pigskinners finished their season with an impressive record of three wins and one loss. The team was tutored by Coach Ralph Kauer.

In their initial outing of the season, the J-V's pounded out a decisive 19-0 win over St. Ignatius.

The Jay-Vees next encountered a star-studded Balboa eleven. The Buccaneers took an early lead, but two quick scores by the Mustangs in the closing minutes decided the issue in their favor.

The Links started what might be the beginning of a home and home series when they traveled to Los Gatos, where they were soundly drubbed by the local high school team, 38-6.

Lowell fell beneath the powerful hoofs of the Mustangs to the tune of 12-6 at Beach Chalet. The Lowell game marked the last appearance of the Links for the '47 season.

Individual standouts were Bob Gill, Gene Weddle, and Bill Cheyne.

Lincoln High's unglorified goof squad gained valuable experience and enjoyed themselves while performing under the excellent guidance of Coach "Doc" Mosby.

In their first outing the Mustangs faced Balboa on the latter's turf. The Links galloped home with the short end of a 12-0 score.

The season was stamped as a complete success when the Crimson and Gold dropped Lowell 6-2.

Minor Sports

Employing the deadly shooting of Gaston Gassiot and the great passing of Bob Stevens, Lincoln's Zebramen finished their season in a three-way tie for second place. Climaxing their victorious comeback from two early season setbacks, the men of Coach P. J. Prinz crashed through to a triumph over a Galileo team which, at that time, was leading the league. The club lost to Washington and Mission before it had a chance to warm up. After these two losses, the squad breezed through the remainder of their schedule undefeated.

Baseball's Best Season

One of the most successful baseball seasons in this school's history was completed by the Lincoln nine last May 1-4 against Commerce.

Although the baseballers dropped a 4-3 decision, they finished their season with a five won, four lost record. A triple in the last of the seventh decided the Commerce game.

The Links, after being rained out three weeks in a row, opened their season with a shaky 4-0 triumph over St. Ignatius.

Next the Mustangs tamed Balboa, 6-0. John Muller hurled four-hit ball. Bernie Esser banged out two for three at the plate. The Links scored their third successive shutout when they blanked Lowell 8-0. Del Young led the hit parade with two for three, and John Muller was credited with a two-hit shutout.

The Mustangs enjoyed their fourth shutout when they dumped Poly 5-0 behind the steady pitching of Dick Hanlon. After three innings of the Washington game, the Links' records of thirty-one frames without being scored upon was broken. The Eagles dropped the game, however, 8-4.

Coach Milt Axt's seemingly title-bound nine was given their first setback of the season by Galileo, 12-7.

Mission, enhanced by Floyd Dickey's brilliant pitching performance, whitewashed the Links, 14-0.

Inspired by the sensational pitching of Butch Tierney, Sacred Heart edged the Lincoln nine, 2-1.

Striving for a playoff berth, the Honest Abes dropped a close 4-3 decision to Commerce. The Links hung on until the last of the seventh when Commerce got to Dick Hanlon for the deciding run.

Minor Sports

TENNIS

Lincoln High's tennis team enjoyed a successful campaign under the coaching of Mr. P. J. Prinz. The team had difficulty getting organized because of poor weather and unsatisfactory practicing conditions.

They matched themselves against some of the city's first teams in dual practice encounters.

Expected to make a strong bid for the singles title was S. Peterson. Peterson was seeded first among the Lincoln netters. Close behind him were Tom Terry, William Peden, Nick Nicolai and Don Bering.

Striving for the doubles championship were S. Reinfeld and R. Davis. Both boys are outstanding individual performers and teamed together they formed a smooth functioning duo. Another strong bid for recognition in the doubles bracket was made by Don Bamford and Milton Ng.

SWIMMING

This year's edition of Lincoln High's swimming team stood a good chance to finish high in the upper division.

The varsity fishmen, coached by Mr. Aubel, had hopes for a first place from their back-stroking genius, Dick Nishkian. Nishkian garnered many telling points in dual practice meets. The only other two outstanding varsity swimmers entered in the city meet trials were Blake Peterson and Jack Donahue.

The 130-pound tanksters had but one outstanding individual entered in the finals. He was Paul Duerner. Last season Duerner placed second in the breaststroke and first in the 100-yard.

The 120-pound team had quite a field of promising entries.

Lou Passeri, outstanding Lincoln sprinter, placed fourth in this year's All City track meet. In the adjoining picture Passeri is shown breaking the tape in the 100 yd. dash trials.

In a dual practice meet against Palo Alto High School, Passeri smashed the school's 150-yd. track record. Passeri was instrumental in Lincoln's 130-lb. relay team winning fourth place.

Lightweight Track

Lincoln High's lightweight track team did not fare well in the city meet, which was held last May 8 at Kezar Stadium. The Link 130 and 120-pound aggregations both placed fourth. The lightweight clubs were coached by Mr. Ralph Kauer. Mr. Kauer did a fine job with the little material he had.

Lou Passeri, 130's dash man, turned in a fourth place in the 100-yard dash. Springer, also of Lincoln, placed fifth in the aforementioned event. Bob Kratter leaped his way to a fifth in the broad jump.

Other 130-pounders who won points in dual meet races, but failed to qualify for the city meet were Skip Phillips, hurdles; Gaston Gasiot, shot put.

In a practice meet held at Palo Alto High School, Lincoln's 130's swept most of the events and the meet. Lou Passeri broke one of the track records.

The only important point-getter for the 120-pound tracksters was Matson in the broad jump. The Link twenties were also coached by Mr. Kauer.

The lightweight track teams also enjoyed the banquet held at the close of last term.

In the all city meet, which was held at Kezar Stadium May 8, Lincoln High's varsity spikemen placed fourth with a total of  $21\frac{1}{2}$  points.

In dual practice meets the Links were defeated twice. They downed Balboa, Galileo, Washington, and Poly. Commerce and champion Lowell downed the Links.

When the tracksters traveled to Palo Alto, they were defeated 59-54.

Double winners for Lincoln were Chuck Leonhardt in the discus and shot put and Don Stillwell in the high and low hurdles. Bill Walti won easily in the high jump with a 6 ft.  $\frac{1}{2}$  in. effort.

The Mustangs qualified only three possible winners in the city meet. They were Chuck Leonhardt, Don Stillwell and Bill Walti. Only one of these three managed to take a first. Bill Walti captured the high jump with a leap that was less than one inch of the city record.

Chuck Leonhardt placed second in the discus with a throw of 117 feet. Chuck took a fourth in the shot put for more important points.

In his specialty, the pole vault, Doug Church placed fifth. Don Stillwell garnered two fifths in both hurdle events. Bob Wilkie came in fourth in the 180-yard low hurdles. Al DeLorimer made a brilliant race out of the mile event but could manage only to scrape together enough finishing drive to take a third.

The varsity track team was coached by Mr. James Morena. At the outset of the dual meet season the team formed a track club. At a meeting held in room 132, Russ Stolfi was elected president. Towards the close of last semester the team held a banquet.

Intramural Sports

Lincoln's intra-mural program has grown in the space of two years into an integral part of the Lincoln picture. Mr. Reinaldo Pagano of the Math Department has been head of the program since it was organized two years ago.

Mr. Pagano is still running the show and doing a very good job of it. A great deal of the success of the program is due to his hard work and his popularity with the fellas who participate in the sports.

Each term new sports are put on the agenda to give more boys or, as in the case of the mixed volleyball tournament, girls a chance to participate. No one can compete in the same intra-mural sport as that in which he participated on a regular school athletic team. But if he played football, he may take part in basketball and vice versa. The three most important tournaments are basketball, touch tackle football and softball. These are conducted as eliminations with one defeat eliminating you from the race. The final game is played between the upper and lower division champs, the winner being crowned school champion.

The school football champs are the low senior registry 141, which beat Reg. 5 for the honor. This was conducted in the spring of 1947 and a new champion has not been crowned as this Journal is going to press.

The softball title resides in L-12 211, where it was placed only after a hard struggle with room 10 of the lower division.

Block L and Grid Club

Composed of all of Lincoln's J.V. and varsity football players, the Gridiron Club is a driving force for better school spirit during the football season. The club meets only during the fall months when the gridiron sport is flourishing. At these meetings which are held every week before a game, movies of past games are shown and guest speakers appear and talk to the fellows about football.

Under last year's capable officers, Bill Sans, president; Frank Maestro, vice-president; Roland Riksheim, secretary; and Louie Lang, treasurer, a very successful banquet was held at the end of the season.

The football coaches—Mr. Milton Axt, Mr. Ralph Kauer, and Mr. Dave Mosby—sponsor the club.

Mr. James Morena is faculty sponsor of the Block L. Its officers are John Mueller, president (Marcel Fiore was elected president but relinquished the office to John Mueller because of obligations as high senior class president); Les Brilliant, secretary-treasurer; and Walt Thompson, sergeant-at-arms.

On May 8 they gave a dance at the Century Club. The dance proved to be one of the best of the term.

G.A.A. COUNCIL—FALL TERM

The G.A.A. Council made up of the officers and managers of the G.A.A. and the Block L president, plans many interesting activities for the organization every semester. The activities for the fall term were under the able leadership of Francette Loftus, president; Carla Jo Penington, vice-president; Sally Grunigen, secretary; Pat Drew, treasurer; Sally Maasen, historian and Jackie Arnold, yell leader. They planned three general meetings, several playdays with other schools, and the semi-annual award rally and tea.

The tea and award rally were held at the Y.W.C.A. in January. Before the tea the girls enjoyed swimming. The awards were given out at this time to the outstanding girls in the G.A.A. Block letters were given the girls with fourteen points, and gold pins, the highest award, to the girls with at least twenty-six points. Those who received the gold pins were the graduates Jean Burman and Francette Loftus, and the high seniors Carla Jo Penington and Barbara Gill. Trophies and special awards were presented to the girls who had done exceedingly well in the different sports.

G.A.A. COUNCIL—SPRING TERM

The spring G.A.A. Council with Sally Grunigen as president, arranged, as their big event of the term, an award rally and banquet at Sigmund Stern Grove. Festivities began at four o'clock with games and outdoor sports. Dinner consisted of salad, chicken pie, ice cream and cake. After dinner the G.A.A. awards were presented. Entertainment was provided by the G.A.A. Council and the Girls' Block I Society. On the guest list for the day were the four gym teachers; (Miss Beck, Miss Bellew, Miss Meyer and Mrs. Sullivan), Miss Truman, Mr. White, Mr. Ray Doherty, Director of Physical Education in the San Francisco Public Schools, and representatives from the different high school G.A.A.'s. A wonderful time was had by all.

The council also planned several playdays and rallies. Balboa, Poly and Commerce and Lowell were invited to participate in the different sports with the Links. At the rallies sports movies were shown, and informative talks were given.

The other officers were Avonne Akey, vice-president; Pat Drew, secretary-treasurer, and Joan Marendra, yell leader.

SPORTS

This past year the Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Miss Elsie Meyer, has offered many varied and interesting after-school sports.

In the fall term, ice skating, riding, bowling, badminton, swimming and bowling playdays were held with other schools. A singles tennis tournament and a badminton tournament were held each term. About thirty girls participated.

This spring volleyball was added to the already long list of activities and two of the fall sports, ice skating and basketball, were replaced by roller skating and softball. Swimming, roller skating, badminton, bowling, riding, volleyball and softball were played by 160 enthusiastic members.

Basketball, although it was not offered as a G.A.A. sport in the spring, took the spotlight, with a varsity team that was superb.

Girls' Block "L"

This past year the Block "L" activities have been under the leadership of Mrs. Sullivan.

In the fall the girls enjoyed two bowling parties at the Downtown Bowl; a softball playday at Lincoln, to which several other schools were invited; a trip to Marsh Creek, where they swam, played softball, had a picnic, hiked, and had a really wonderful time; a Christmas party at Mrs. Sullivan's house and a two-day banquet and slumber party at Francette Loftus' house in Fairfax.

The officers for the fall term: Jean Burman, president; Avonne Akey, secretary; and Nina Tchlenoff, treasurer.

Also this spring the Block "L" Society had a bowling party and a trip to Marsh Creek. A volleyball playday was held at Lincoln.

The officers this spring were: Nancy Connolly, president; Carla Jo Penington, secretary; Marilyn Shaves, treasurer.

Lincoln's R.O.T.C.

Under the able guidance and leadership of its three sergeant instructors, Sergeants Hubert Hemphill, Sergeant Byrd Curtis, and Sergeant Dwight Cox, the Lincoln R.O.T.C. has progressed a good deal this past year. Again the Lincoln battalion has attained the rating of Honor School. Again the battalion has aided in the training and drilling of grammar school traffic squads. Something new has been added to the battalion this year, and that is the formation of an Officers' Club.

The R.O.T.C. is divided into three periods a day. Each period is designated as a company, three companies forming the battalion.

Each Wednesday the battalion undergoes a battalion parade and inspection. At these parades the companies compete for the Marshall Trophy, a perpetual award presented to the most proficient company of the term. At the end of each term competitive drills are staged among each company, platoon, squad, and individual. The officer or non-commissioned officer in command of the particular unit winning each competition is presented with a medal, and to each member of the winning unit is presented a ribbon similar to those worn by members of the regular army.

At the end of each spring the battalion goes through a federal inspection. This inspection, conducted by high ranking army officers, is given as a test of training, knowledge and ability of the cadets in the battalion. If these officers are satisfied with the conduct of the battalion, it then becomes an Honor School.

Lincoln's R.O.T.C.

During the past two terms the cadets have been able to learn how to operate the most modern of our army weapons. They have been instructed in the operation of the famous "bazooka" rocket launcher, the .45 caliber pistol, light and heavy machine guns, mortars, hand grenades, and M1 carbines, or "Garands," the world's most accurate rifle.

Included in the cadet's training are such activities as scouting and patrolling, aerial photography, map reading, first aid and military history.

In the early part of the spring term, Sergeant Dwight Cox was replaced by Sergeant Edsel Denney, an ex-marine and now a member of the regular army. During the war Sergeant Denney saw a great deal of action in the Pacific theater of operation. Sergeant Denney's experience will be a valuable asset in training the cadets.

- ★ Continued and will continue to work for the completion of Abraham Lincoln High?

JEANNIE JOHNSON and JOAN REYNOLDS

Jeannie and Joan are active members of the low senior class, but here we caught them out at Playland relaxing. Both have been seen quite a bit with two special ex-Lincolnites, Joan with Jack Clark and Jeannie with Harper Mack.

These two Lincoln lovelies hail from Aptos Junior High and started Lincoln as low sophomores. Now they are very anxiously awaiting their coming fall graduation. Neither has any definite plans for the future, but we are sure they will be successful in whatever they do.

DON LEVIS and
JOEL CRONENWETT

These boys, both members of the low senior class, are looking forward to their graduation next fall. The boys, pictured above, are very good friends and can always been seen together, although Joel is seen quite a bit with his steady, Connie Hardy.

Joel, halfback on the Mustang Eleven, is hoping for a successful football season and Don, thirties center last season, is helping to get in a few games of basketball before he gets his diploma. These boys are the type Lincoln can be proud of.

BILL STERETT and BOB CLARK

Scared, boys? Careful of that big black tunnel. Here we have ready for an exciting Chute the Chute's ride two well-liked junior boys in Lincoln. They are Bill Sterett and Bob Clark,

They seem to have a lot in common. Each was on the football squad and each has an older brother or sister who graduated from Lincoln before their time. Both Bill and Bob hope to bring glory to Lincoln's football team before graduating next year.

Have a nice ride????

BARBARA REYNOLDS and VIV MACK

All ready for the thrill of their lives on the big dipper are two high seniors, Viv Mack and Barbara Reynolds. The girls don't look very scared but we're sure they'll feel differently after their ride is over.

The girls have been good friends for a long time and can usually be seen double dating with their steadies, Doug Bishop and Marty Vermullen, both graduates of fall '47. After graduation Viv and Barbara plan to go to college here in the city.

CLIFF JONES and DICK HUNTER

These two popular Lincolnites, Cliff Jones and Dick Hunter, seem to be right at home here in Playland at Goofy Village. Cliff, a high senior, plans to receive the long awaited diploma in June; but Dick will have to wait until next January for his.

Both have been very active in school affairs, giving many of our Lincoln loves a break. You can always find them with smiles on their faces, and the sign above gives you a big hint about their personalities.

JUDY PORS and RUTH BRICKIE

Riding happily on the bucking bronco is high senior Ruthie Brickie who attended Lincoln for four years, while her partner, Judy Pors, came from Aptos as a low sophomore and will graduate in spring '49. Both are active Lincolniters. Ruthie was on the senior breakfast committee and portrayed the part of Minerva in the term play, while her buddy, Judy, was prompter.

These two jokers have quite a time together. It's too bad they won't graduate together, but we know they will continue to be closest of friends.

BILL BANKS and BROOKS RAINHEY

Well, boys, are you enjoying yourselves? Judging by the grins we think so. Bill Banks, the quieter half of the pair, is graduating this time. He will be remembered for his friendliness. Brooks Rainey, who always has some money-making gadget, will probably become a multimillionaire. He is a low senior and has to wait until next fall for his diploma.

These two boys are very popular at Lincoln and we're sure everyone wishes them success, as they go their different ways.

San Francisco's first schoolhouse opened in 1848. But it soon closed—the teacher went gold-hunting in the Mother Lode. By 1854, there were seven schools...1,574 pupils.

Taking time to enjoy a bit of restful (?) pleasure are two popular high seniors, Bobbie Noyer and Joyce Broughton. Joyce arrived at the hilltop from Aptos in her low sophomore year, while Bobbie traveled all the way from Idaho to be with us in her junior term.

College seems to be the next stop for both girls after graduation, but it is doubtful as to which one they are going to attend. Lincoln will surely miss these two smiling faces 'round the halls.

Meet George Rotenkolber, who came to the hilltop as a low sophomore from Aptos and is now a high junior, anxiously awaiting his graduation next June.

An active member of the boxing team, George has become well known for his boxing ability. Of course, running laps at least two or three times a day cannot be forgotten, as this is a favorite punishment given him by his teachers. He claims this exercise keeps him in "top" shape for boxing.

REGISTRY ONE-FORTY-TWO . . .

*Oh, we're the demon darlings
Of reg. one-forty-two;
Every day's a nightmare,
The worst we dare to do.

But like a patient angel
Miss Gallagher smiles through,
Despite the corny jokes we pull
And lessons we don't do.

Now it's time to graduate,
And our Miss G. must know
We wouldn't be so naughty
If we didn't love her so!*

Goodbye! So long! Toodle-oo!
Farewell!

Our years at Lincoln have been just swell.

We've had our good days — also our bad,
But they were the best days we've ever had!
So with one last thought, Reg. 213 leaves ya—
Bye-bye! Au Revoir! . . . in other words, See Ya!

I'm planning on a job at the Telephone Company when I graduate

Here's Why—

- ★ The work is interesting — and important, too
- ★ Pay is good right from the start
- ★ There are opportunities for promotion
- ★ Telephone people are friendly
- ★ I can earn while I learn
- ★ The work is steady

Why don't you plan on a telephone company job, too?

Come in and talk it over with our employment counselors today at

KAREN FRAYNE and
PAT BRODERICK

These two smiling faces peering over the top of the novelty gate out at the beach are two adorable, well-known and popular high seniors. Need we say more? Look for yourself.

Both have been here since their freshman year and have had a marvelous high school career. The girls plan to attend college after their June '48 graduation. It is undecided as to which one they will attend, but we are sure that these two girls, Karen and Patty, will succeed in everything they do.

JOYCE BOUDINOT and DIANNE PAETZOLD

Look at those beaming faces in the above picture. Aren't they enjoying themselves? Yes, those two Lincoln lovelies are none other than Joyce Boudinot and Dianne Paetzold.

Hailing from Francis Scott Key, Diane and Joyce plan to make the best of their four-year stay at Lincoln. Now high sophomores they agree that rallies, double lunches and dances are their favorite school activities. Keep your eyes open for these two popular girls. You'll be seeing much more of them in the future. —o—

Lots of Luck and

DIANNE RYAN and SHIRLEY FRIED

Here are two more Lincoln lovelies. Shirley, coming from Parkside as a freshman, is now a high senior, and Dianne, now a high junior, came from Aptos as a sophomore. Both girls are very active in journalism. Dianne is on the Journal staff, and Shirley is first page editor of the "Lincoln Log."

Shirley is planning to attend City College in the fall, and Dianne is looking forward to her senior year. First airplane ride, girls?? Well, we all hope you enjoy it!

KAREN WOLSETH and JOAN WALTI

The two smiling faces belong to Karen Wolseth and Joan Walti, two of our very popular high sophomores here on the hilltop. Karen has entertained us many times by singing at rallies. Both are looking forward eagerly to spending the summer at the river and Boulders with their pals.

Though graduation seems quite a while away, college is in line for these two. They hope for a lot of fun in their future years at Lincoln. It's kids like these who keep the school tradition going.

BEV LYONS and
COTTON SAMUELSON

These two cute lowerclassmen seen enjoying themselves around Playland at the Beach are Bev Lyons and Mary Ann (better known as Cotton) Samuelson. They have been good friends ever since the first grade and are still able to bear each other.

Have you noticed the lovely tan on Cotton, and Bev seems to be catching up with her.

Both girls are active in the sophomore class and very energetic—always making things lively. So watch Bev and Cotton because they will both go far.

Bill, I want to wish you success in your studies and well being in your job up hill. Have no trouble, Chuck Williams

Dear Bill,

I really can't think of anything quite appropriate except I've really enjoyed knowing you and I wish you the best of luck in the future. may God Bless you with much happiness & success.

Always,
John Martin

Here's wishing you luck in your future for
I doos of good
in your future.
It's a pleasure.
See you next year
May 1948

Well you great
